FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jack Lynch to be Honored

The Starke County Development Foundation will be hosting an Open House to honor Jack Lynch, a founding member of the Starke County Development Foundation, for over 22 years of service on its Board of Trustees of the Starke County Development Foundation. The Open House will be Wednesday, July 16, 2008 from 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. CDT at the office of the Starke County Development Foundation, 4 North Main Street, Knox, Indiana. A presentation is planned for 2:00 p.m.

Robert E. Hamilton, Chris Madsen, Bob Shaw, Steve Spaw and Mat Swanson together with Jack Lynch founded the Starke County Development Foundation, which incorporated in 1985. The Foundation is responsible for assisting industries providing workforce development, a small business center, and owning the SCILL Center. Among industries assisted by the Foundation are Indiana Fineblanking, Division of MPI, J.W. Hicks, Inc., White Flyer, Toll Integrated Systems, Kruz, Inc., Sabre Manufacturing, Norton Packaging, I.P. Callison & Sons, Hoosier Custom Plastics and SYSCO Corporation's planned redistribution center. Post location services have been provided to Knox Fertilizer, NorAm Plastics, Polyform International, IMG, and American Oak.

Please contact Lisa at 574-772-5627 to RSVP by Friday, July 11, 2008.
