BAUGH MIDWEST COOPERATIVE LEADERS (SYSCO) TO MAKE PUBLIC PRESENTATION

KNOX – The Starke County Development Foundation today announced that three of the executives involved with Sysco Corporation’s Baugh Midwest Cooperative Redistribution Center proposed for Hamlet, Indiana will make a public presentation on December 4, 2007 at 5:00 PM CST at the Oregon-Davis Elementary School Cafeteria.

The public is invited to the meeting for the presentation by Peter Floersheimer, who is the President of the Redistribution Centers, Gary Tomes, Vice-President of Baugh Midwest Cooperative and Tom Raimer, Director of Facilities, Baugh Midwest Cooperative.

Charles Weaver, Executive Director, of the Starke County Development Foundation, said the presentation is being made possible through the cooperation of the Oregon Davis-Schools and its Superintendent, Dr. Steve Disney. The idea for a public presentation originated with Mr. John Slusher of Hamlet.

It is expected that information will be given regarding Sysco Corporation and its Redistributions Centers, especially the Baugh Midwest Cooperative proposed for Hamlet, its construction schedule and nature of operation.
